Asheville Housing Authority – Residential Lease Agreement and House Rules Updates

In compliance with United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) regulations, the Housing Authority of the City of Asheville (HACA) will be holding an Open Public Comment Period to receive public input on the Proposed updates to the Residential Lease Agreement, House Rules, and Policies. We encourage all residents, stakeholders and community members to review the plan and provide their feedback.

The Public Comment Period has been extended to run until 11:59pm on Monday, June 22, 2026. All documents are available for public review and comment online at https://haca.org/2026_lease__house_rules/, and in hard copy at all of the HACA properties, and at the HACA Central Offices located at 165 S. French Broad Ave., Asheville, 28801.

A list of HACA property offices is available at: https://haca.org/our-properties-new/Public comments may be submitted in writing by email to: Comments@haca.org .
